Description

Personality
 CPT Downing is one of the most capable and talented XO's in the Colonial Marines. He is well versed in tactics and is nothing short of a phenomenal leader. He has worked hard to develop the 21st into a well oiled and honed machine. Downing is also a very competent soldier in his own right and does his best to lead by example. He can often be seen on the front lines, leading the troops into battle himself, rather than sitting behind in the APC's Tactical Command Console.

Description

Personality

SGTMJR Lee is a well decorated soldier who has served honorably in the corps for over four tours. She is tough as nails, discipline, and unwavering in her devotion to the corps. Lee was hand-picked by LT Downing for his Strike Team after she served with distinction during the Ceti Campaign. Downing had her promoted to SGTMJR to serve as his company SGT. Lee is no-nonsense in her role as sergeant demanding the very best from those serving under her in the field. Off the field, she can be affable, but would never be mistaken for "approachable".

Description

Personality

PVT Harris is the most recent addition to the 21st. He replaces CPL Truman, who was wounded and relieved from active duty on the 21st's prior assignment. Harris is fresh from his training and has yet to completely acclimate both to active duty as well as the tight-knit group that is the 21st. Harris is eager to prove himself a vital member, which is a personality trait that rubs many of the more experienced members of the 21st wrong. He is likeable despite his eagerness, but is sometimes prone to brooding when his squad-mates are a bit too rough on him for being the "noob".

Description

Personality
 PFC Juarez is the 21st's resident "college boy." She graduated cum laude in her bioengineering class, but signed up for the USCMC in order to pay off the debt she accrued during her graduate work. She likes working for the corps, oddly enough. She is most drawn to the feelings of comradeship that is present in the corps. Being from a broken home, she has always lacked a real sense of family that she seems to have found here. Juarez is particularly close to PVT Kidman. She detests CPL Moto due to his cocky behavior. She is also drawn somewhat to PVT Harris since he's the newbie.

Description

Personality

CPL Lewis is the closest to an actual psychopath that can get by the extensive USCMC screening process. He has a short fuse and even shorter patience. His anger, once sparked, is white hot and barely controllable by Lewis or his superiors. Known as "T-Bob" for unknown reasons, Lewis is constantly getting into scrapes and fights both when on or off duty. He has had a few official reprimands, but his combat abilities and decorations have kept the most severe punishments from befalling him. In combat, Lewis is quite the asset. He is fearless and often puts himself in harms way to protect his squad mates. Lewis is liked by the rest of the 21st, but they keep an eye on him.

Description

Personality

SGT Najeem is a well educated and thoughtful man. He rounds out the rough and tumble demeanor of the 21st's command staff as a pragmatic and even-tempered voice of reason. Najeem left his collegiate life only a dissertation defense away from a doctorate in Mechanical Engineering due to a student riot that killed his fiancé. His grief sent his life into a tailspin that only ended by his enlistment with the USCMC. His natural intellect and presence has made him a fine SGT in the corps. Najeem is growing short on time in the military and he greatly looks forward to returning to his life outside of the Marines.

Description

CPL Moto is a loud, brash, and arrogant member of the 21st Alpha Strike Team. His flamboyance is tolerated by those around him only because he is possibly the most talented individual in the squad. Physically, he is nothing short of a phenomenon and he quickly picks up just about anything he sets his mind to. CPL Moto is new to the Strike Team as of the prior mission, but he has already managed a promotion to PFC and seems to be fast-tracked to NCO status. SGTMJR Lee seems to have taken a shining to him. Everyone else merely tolerates him.

Description

Personality

CPL Miller is known as "Guru" to his squad-mates due to his deeply spiritual nature. A drop-out from seminary, Miller found his way to the USCMC as a young man, lost in the world. Two tours of duty did not strengthen Miller's knowledge of doctrine or dogma, but it has definitely increased his faith and overall spiritual outlook. Miller's faith is not militant, nor does it fall in line with any organized religion. To him, the spiritual journey is an individual one and he only wishes to facilitate others on their paths. A simple, easy-going air follows him around, like a man at peace with himself and his environs. Most squad members enjoy Miller's company.

Description

LCPL Sebastian is probably one of the hardest and most bitter soldiers in the squad. Once a beautiful woman, shrapnel from a corporate grenade marred her beauty forever. The experience has completely soured Sebastian's perspective, particularly where corporate security forces are involved. She hates all corporate employees passionately and has an Calm more focused hatred for CorpSec forces. Outside of that, Sebastian is a competent medic and is Calm somewhat jovial around her squad. She is particularly close to PFC Moto and gets along well with CPL Miller.

Description

Personality

PFC Chan perhaps looks to be the most hardened soldier, but her looks deceive. She is a very sociable and amicable woman. Quick-witted and funny, Chan is rarely ribald like PVT Kidman, with whom she has an ongoing mental sparring match. While friendly, Chan is physically foreboding. Her body is well-toned, a fact that she is very proud of. She spends as much time as she possible can in the gym in her off hours, continuing to perfect her physique. Chan is somewhat close to LCPL Sebastian for reasons completely unfathomable to most everyone, including Chan and Sebastian.
